

Statement By University Of Colorado President Elizabeth Hoffman - March 24, 2005

Chancellor DiStefano and Deans Gleeson and Getches deserve to be commended for their work on a very serious matter that has received much debate. We now must let the University's research misconduct process work as it is intended. I have confidence that the committee will conduct a professional, careful, and thorough investigation.