

Molefi Kete Asante

Molefi Kete Asante, Professor, African American Studies, Temple University, and author of Erasing Racism: The Survival of the American Nation, says:

"Churchill's work is in the best tradition of advancing science and intellectual dialogue and goes directly against the position of those who would keep our minds closed to different points of view; his is the epitome of critical thinking."